

Focus Awards Level 3 Award in Assessing Competence in the Work Environment (RQF)

Overview

The Level 3 Award in Assessing Competence in the Work Environment is considered to be an entry qualification for people looking to assess learners on accredited courses. Most training centres would expect that you have this assessor qualification at the very least before you start assessing in the FE and HE sectors. This is Regulated Qualifications Framework RQF qualification formerly known as A1 Assessor course and it was replaced by the current suite of qualifications, which are commonly referred to as TAQA (Training Assessment and Quality Assurance). You are not required to have any prior qualification or experience to start this level 3 course. This NVQ assessor course will assist you regardless of your subject expertise, whether its streets hospitality and catering or nursing. The course is accredited by UK OFQUAL, and is delivered 100% online.

Scope of this Qualification

This course will qualify you to become an assessor in construction, early years, health and safety, hospitality and retail sectors etc. This course is also suitable for fields where assessments are conducted through work-based evidence, direct observations, witness testimony, on-site observations, and professional discussions etc.

Duration and Delivery

This course is designed to be completed online at the pace that suits you the best. This fast track level 3 assessor course can take as little as 4 days or up to 4 months to become an assessor. This level 3 assessor qualification is delivered through our virtual learning environment (VLE). Our online tutor support is there to facilitate you to achieve your success rate accordingly.

Assessment and Verification

All units within this assessor qualification are internally assessed by our qualified assessors and externally verified by the awarding organisation. The assessment takes the form of written assignments and demonstration of assessment skills through video recording and portfolio of evidence, detailed guidance for which will be provided by the tutor.
